P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, All of the efforts of man to end death and destruction on the streets and highways in the State of South Dakota will not succeed fully until each driver realizes the needless toll of death and injury is an abuse of God's most precious gift, and

WHEREAS, While South Dakota has made impressive strides in improving the standards and enforcement of its motor vehicle laws, its engineering for highway construction and its driver education and training programs, this advancement will not be adequate until every driver accepts a moral responsibility for his driving conduct, and

WHEREAS, South Dakota clergymen of all faiths have joined in an effort to make every motorist aware of his moral responsibilities when driving an automobile,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday and Sunday, October 30th and 31st, 1965 as and urge every South Dakotan to join in this united religious campaign to awaken in the conscience and mind of every driver the realization that negligence at the wheel of an automobile is a transgression of God's Command, 'Thou Shalt Not Kill.' We further urge that every driver keep this Commandment and practice the Golden Rule by extending courtesy on the highway as the most immediate and practical means of averting untimely death.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 18th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.
